

Chairman Powell,

I am very concerned about the upcoming vote on Monday on media consolidation without public debate. This is too important to push through without adequate discussion of its consequences. This vote is too soon! Our public media is a near joke as it is.

Nancy Toothman